PROPERTY SUMMARY

Here is your opportunity to own 100 +/- acres of pristine Ozark land, bordering the Mark Twain National Forest. Located near Chadwick, MO, this secluded yet accessible property offers blacktop road frontage—giving you the best of both worlds: privacy and convenience. This is a true outdoorsman's paradise. With 1,000's of acres of National Forest on the south border, this tract offers excellent deer and turkey hunting right out your back door. The land features a diverse mix of hardwood timber, gently rolling terrain, and natural clearings perfect for food plots or cabin sites. Whether you're looking for a private hunting retreat, a place to build your dream home, or a long-term land investment, this 100-acre property delivers. Easy access, surrounded by forest, and rich with wildlife—this is the kind of property that doesn't come around often.
