PROPERTY SUMMARY

Location: St. Joe, Searcy County, AR

Access: Road frontage on Tomahawk Slab Road

Utilities: Electric accessible

Topography: Sloping with buildable ridges

Located on Tomahawk Slab Road near St. Joe in Searcy County, AR, this 26± acre tract offers a peaceful retreat just minutes from the Buffalo National River. With road frontage and electric accessible, this wooded property features a seasonal creek, sloping terrain, and a small clearing ideal for an RV, cabin, weekend base camp, or future homestead. Though rural water isn't directly on the property, it's nearby and may be extended. Ideal for first-time buyers, weekend warriors, or those looking for a private Ozark getaway. Whether you're planning to build now or later, this parcel offers recreational value, future potential, and a location close to both the North Maumee and Gilbert access points on the river. A great mix of privacy and usability with big potential in a small package.
