PROPERTY SUMMARY

This 51.47 surveyed acres in Union County offers all things a hunter would want in one small package. There is ample cover, trails (allowing easy access throughout the property) and food plots in place. There is abundance of wildlife on the property and in the immediate area, there is a lot of WRP ground all around that will offer habitat for the years to come. There are also ag fields that but up to the North and South ends of the property with large age fields just to West. There is everything the wildlife would want all on this property and in the immediate area. The property offers Deer, Turkey, fishing and potential Waterfowl hunting. Sitting along the Mississippi flyway and just miles from several hunting clubs there is the potential to be duck hunted as well. There aren't many properties that offer the ability to hunt all things southern Illinois has to offer.
