PROPERTY SUMMARY

This 99 acre timber tract offers a future timber value while being set up to be a good hunting property with a potential build site right at the front corner of the property so not to interfere with the hunting. There are water and electric roadside to make for easy hookup. The property also offers a trail system that navigates around the perimeter and throughout, that allows for easy access to any part of the property. This property also features newly added food plot locations to help hold the wildlife. Surrounded by ag and other timber this property is in the prime habitat to hold the wildlife. There has been numerous big deer and turkey taken in the immediate area. Don't miss out on this property, ask me how you can get on the property and hunt it this season.
