PROPERTY SUMMARY

Sweeping views from the top of Jack Mountain! This 10.4 acre tract is perfect for that cabin build or recreational escape. This wooded property has county road frontage and power access very close by. ATV trails are already in place throughout. At 3,800 feet in elevation you can escape the summer heat and enjoy nature and the mountain air. Only 5 miles from the town of Monterey, this property has strong cell reception, a rarity in the secluded high country of Highland county! Wildlife abounds here with deer, turkey and grouse calling this mountain home. This property sits in the middle of large acreage properties, and provides seclusion and dark starry nights. No POAs! There is a building site that could be cleared of small trees and offers long views of western Highland County, Virginias sweet spot!
