PROPERTY SUMMARY

The Grady County Hunting Tract is a 30 acre recreational property offering a well-balanced mix of open native grass pasture and deciduous timber. The land is comprised of approximately 18 acres of native grassland and pasture, along with 7.5 acres of timber that provides excellent cover, natural travel corridors, and bedding areas for wildlife. This combination creates strong edge habitat, allowing the property to hunt larger than its size and making it well suited for whitetail deer and other local game. Whether used as a small hunting tract, a weekend getaway, a rural retreat, or a long-term land investment, this property offers versatility and strong recreational appeal in Grady County, Oklahoma.
