PROPERTY SUMMARY

This beautiful 10-acre homesite lies just outside the quiet town of Due West in Abbeville County, SC. The property is part of a larger tract owned by local farmers that have utilized the property for many years for their cattle operation. The excellent topography and open pastureland are ideal for livestock, farming, or a future homesite.

The property's location is one of its most significant selling points. It's situated less than 20-miles from Anderson and Greenwood, and only 2.5-miles from Due West.

The level topography is perfect for new construction. The tract offers an incredible opportunity to build a home and enjoy the peace and quiet of the countryside while being just minutes from town.

Overall, the property has a lot to offer due to its level topography, its location to nearby towns, and the peace and quiet it affords. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to build a home and enjoy the benefits of rural living.
