Property Summary

This beautiful property offers the perfect blend of country living, privacy, and convenience. The property features a 3-bedroom, 2-bath home with a two-car garage and a full basement that is partially finished and stubbed for an additional bathroom, offering excellent potential for future living space. A workshop with a garage door provides plenty of room for projects, equipment, and storage, while the mature timber offers privacy, natural beauty, and recreational opportunities. With ample acreage, a spacious home, and plenty of room to expand, this property is an excellent opportunity for those looking for a peaceful rural setting close to town.
