PROPERTY SUMMARY

Escape to the beauty and privacy of this exceptional 25-acre tract located in the quaint little town of Pleasant Hill, Alabama, covered in mixed timber and offering outstanding hunting and recreational opportunities. Whether you're searching for a hunting property, weekend retreat, or potential homesite, this land delivers the perfect blend of natural beauty and functionality.

Abundant deer, turkey, and other native wildlife make this a true hunter's paradise, while the heavily wooded landscape that is fully stocked with pine and hardwood timber provides excellent cover and habitat. The property also offers an all-season spring-fed creek that runs through it.

If you have been looking for a manageable-sized property with excellent hunting, investment potential, and the tranquility of the outdoors, this 25 +/- acre tract is ready to make your vision a reality.
